

Understanding Types of Stores

BUYING USED ITEMS

Used goods often need to be cleaned or repaired before use. Look at the items listed in the bottom box. Decide if it would be a good idea to buy the item. If so, choose the best selection from the "Preparation for Use Options" box.

PREPARATION FOR USE OPTIONS

- Repair
- Paint or refinish
- Launder
- Scrub with a brush
- Hire a personal cleaning service
- Use as is
- Dry clean
- Spray with a hose

ITEM	BUY USED	DO NOT BUY USED	PREPARATION FOR USE
Wooden desk chair with an arm broken
Upholstered sofa in good condition
Wooden shelves that are painted three colors
Underwear in good shape
Wool winter coat that looks almost new
Sheets and towels
Almost full bag of flour
Hair brush that is fairly clean
Wheel barrel that is filthy
Nearly new tire
Wooden table covered with years of grime			