

COMPENSATION FOR INJURIES<sup>2</sup>

1. A student trainee who is injured on the premises may be compensated by the Commission de la santé et de la sécurité du travail (CSST, or occupational health and safety commission). Circle your answer.

True

False

2. An accident that occurs in the parking lot or on the premises of the employer is considered an occupational accident.

True

False

3. The income replacement indemnity for an accident in the workplace is considered taxable income.

True

False

4. Expenses for transportation to the hospital following an accident in the workplace are met by the employer.

True

False

5. A worker who sustains an occupational injury must consult the doctor who is assigned to his or her case.

True

False

6. A victim of an occupational injury has the right to be compensated for the costs of medication and other pharmaceutical products related to his or her injury.

True

False

---

<sup>2</sup> Source: Centrale de l'enseignement du Québec (CEQ - Septembre 1988-D-9193-A).