

Reading and Writing Money Amounts

WRITING MONEY AMOUNTS IN NUMBERS

The dollar amount is important to spell correctly on a check. Practice translating the dollar amounts below from words to numbers. For example, “two hundred thirty-four dollars” would be translated as $234.00.

eighty-seven dollars		twenty-five dollars and fifty cents one thousand dollars		twelve dollars and sixty-two cents four hundred two dollars		eighty dollars and fourteen cents sixty-six dollars and seven cents		five hundred eight dollars and eighty cents ninety-nine dollars and ten cents		nine hundred one dollars ten thousand sixty-six dollars and twenty-six cents		three hundred thirty-three dollars seven hundred thirty-one dollars		fifty dollars and ninety-eight cents two thousand sixty-five dollars		ninety-seven dollars one thousand one dollars		sixteen dollars and seventy-three cents twenty-eight dollars and forty-nine cents		eighty-eight dollars and one cent six hundred twenty-one dollars		three hundred two dollars ten thousand eight dollars and thirty four cents		one million twenty-five dollars two thousand one dollars		fifty thousand forty-seven dollars fifty-five dollars and twelve cents		one thousand ten dollars and nineteen cents six hundred thirty-four dollars		three hundred sixteen dollars one hundred thousand six dollars		eleven dollars and twenty-five cents four hundred thirty-one dollars		seventy-one dollars and eleven cents	