

Name

Date

Post-Secondary Schooling Options

Apprenticeship when a person learns a specific trade from a trained professional; can be part of a technical/vocational college program or part of a trade union program

Military Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force

On-the-Job Training when a person learns the skills of a job while working for pay

Technical/Vocational College a school that offers work-related classes, associate's degrees, and certificates relating to specific employment areas

Trade School a school that provides instruction for a specific skilled trade

University or College a private or public school that offers bachelor's degrees and often master's and doctorate degrees related to general and specific employment areas