

Moving

SETTING UP A NEW HOME

There are usually some items that must be bought when a person moves into a new home. Study the “Possible Purchases” listed below and consider whether the items are necessities or wants. Put a check next to each item that is essential to buy when moving to a new residence.

POSSIBLE PURCHASES

	towels to match bathrooms		dishes to match wall paper stove (there is one, but it doesn't work)		shelves for laundry room sofa (old one is too big for room)		shower curtain salt for water softener		lawn mower phones (owns old version w/o Caller ID)		patio furniture (for new patio) window to replace broken one		copies of house keys decorations (has plenty from old home)		closet shelving systems bedroom curtains or shades		rug for carpet by entry door sink (there is one but it is stained)		brass tool set for fireplace television (has 27", but wants 32")		light bulbs (to replace burned out ones)
	cookie sheets (old ones have dents)		garage door opener drawer dividers for kitchen		paint (the walls are dirty)