

Understanding Income

COMPARING TYPICAL INCOMES

Match the jobs with likely incomes. Each box has one job that typically pays at each of these income levels:

- minimum wage
- twice minimum wage
- four times minimum wage
- seven times minimum wage
- ten or more times minimum wage

Minimum wage is the lowest hourly pay allowed by law. Salaries start at minimum wage and go up.

- |                            |                         |
|----------------------------|-------------------------|
| ___ 1. architect           | a. minimum wage         |
| ___ 2. construction worker | b. 2 x minimum          |
| ___ 3. receptionist        | c. 4 x minimum          |
| ___ 4. electrician         | d. 7 x minimum          |
| ___ 5. lawyer              | e. 10 or more x minimum |

- |                             |                         |
|-----------------------------|-------------------------|
| ___ 6. professional athlete | f. minimum wage         |
| ___ 7. child care worker    | g. 2 x minimum          |
| ___ 8. purchasing agent     | h. 4 x minimum          |
| ___ 9. factory line worker  | i. 7 x minimum          |
| ___ 10. pilot               | j. 10 or more x minimum |

- |                            |                         |
|----------------------------|-------------------------|
| ___ 11. well-known actor   | k. minimum wage         |
| ___ 12. office manager     | l. 2 x minimum          |
| ___ 13. engineer           | m. 4 x minimum          |
| ___ 14. fast food worker   | n. 7 x minimum          |
| ___ 15. factory supervisor | o. 10 or more x minimum |

- |                             |                         |
|-----------------------------|-------------------------|
| ___ 16. delivery person     | p. minimum wage         |
| ___ 17. doctor              | q. 2 x minimum          |
| ___ 18. hair stylist        | r. 4 x minimum          |
| ___ 19. teacher             | s. 7 x minimum          |
| ___ 20. computer programmer | t. 10 or more x minimum |