

Dealing with Children's School Needs

WRITING SCHOOL EXCUSES

A school excuse is a note a parent must write when his or her child is absent. For planned absences from school, parents should send a note the day before the absence. For unplanned absences, parents should send a note with the child upon his or her return to school. Write an excuse for each student below.

Eddie has a dentist appointment today at 10:30 a.m. Afterwards he will return to school.

Bea has had the flu for almost a week. She has missed the last four days of school.
